There are multiple ways to obtain access to our course site within Modified Mastering A&P so please use the method most applicable to your situation. In addition, the publisher has two Mastering A&P websites. We will be using the 'Modified Mastering A&P' website. Do not purchase access to the standard Mastering A and P website as this will not give you access to our course. To ensure you purchase the correct access, please use your preferred method from the options listed below.

1. For those of you who purchase an access code packaged with the text from a bookstore (local campus or online) either as a separate item or packaged with the textbook.

Note - Make sure that you purchase a text with access to 'Modified Mastering A&P’. All local bookstores carry Modified Mastering A&P access codes. If you purchase directly from Pearson, be sure you purchase the package option that comes with Modified Mastering A&P.
