

CMN101: PUBLIC SPEAKING

Spring 2015 Sections for Non-Native English Speakers

What are these sections of CMN101?

CMN101 for non-native English speakers:

1. Are reserved for non-native English speakers
2. Contain the same content as all CMN101 sections, but have additional information for non-native English speakers, including:
 - aspects of American vocal and physical delivery
 - common pronunciation issues
 - training in American methods of citation
 - American approaches to argumentation

CMN 101: Public Speaking is not an ESL course.

S

Section NN1 – CRN 50485 – MWF 11 am

Section NN2 – CRN 50488 – MWF 12 pm

Section NN3 – CRN 50497 – MWF 1 pm

Section NN4 – CRN 58534 – TR 9:30 am

Section NN5 – CRN 50517 – TR 12:30 pm

Section NN6 – CRN 58536 – TR 2 pm

These sections are reserved for non-native English speakers.

If you meet this requirement, but get an error message when registering, go to <http://go.illinois.edu/CMN101nonnativeEnglishspeakers> for permission to register.

For more information, contact Dr. Mardia Bishop at mjbishop@illinois.edu.

