

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCHER POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT- MCB 290

Department of Comparative Biosciences, School of Veterinary Medicine
University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign

Biochemistry laboratory working on various projects is looking for motivated MCB majors who are very interested in doing research and getting credit under MCB 290.

Positions are available starting Fall 2014.

REQUIREMENTS:

Highly motivated freshman and sophomores with GPA (~3.5) keen to go to medical school, graduate school, pharmacy school or veterinary medicine school are welcome to apply.

PREFERRED SKILLS:

Experience with standard molecular biology techniques is desired but not required. High motivation and strong research ethics is required.

APPLICATION MATERIALS:

The application materials should be emailed as a single PDF file containing (a) resume, (b) a list containing details of courses and grades and (c) one paragraph on your reason for applying for this position.

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH PROMOTION:

- Our lab believes in undergraduate research
- Undergraduates in our lab do research, present papers and co-author papers.

CONTACT:

Aditi Das Ph.D.

aditidaslab@gmail.com

website: <https://sites.google.com/site/aditidaspro/>